

The Beauty of Everything

Plants – so pretty and pure,
To be valued forever, I am sure.
The Osprey how you can see
They're so beautiful to me.

The pelican soars high
Like an eagle in the sky.
Animals so cute and rare,
Need protection everywhere.

All the Cypress trees
Sway through the breeze.
Magnolias on trees
You count one, two, three.

The green space
How beautiful it is.
No cement, no buildings, please.
This is a legacy.
