

Woodlands Trail and Park Working for Better Cycling on the West Bank

by Katie Brasted

Woodlands Trail and Park is working to see the creation of a multiuse trail in the Lower Coast area on the West Bank. Woodlands Trail and Park is established as a 501-C-3, nonprofit corporation with the mission "to establish a historical and recreational greenway, designed as a nature trail; jogging, hiking, and bicycle pathway; and equestrian trail. And to establish a natural area and park with amenities within the Lower Coast Algiers and Belle Chasse areas."

It is anticipated that portions of the bike pathway will become part of the Mississippi River Trail which begins at the headwaters of the Mississippi and travels through 10 states on its way to the Gulf of Mexico.
