

SPRUCING UP THE TRAILS

The Woodlands Trail and Park Association held a work day on Saturday, during which they cleared trails, installed sign posts and erected wood duck nesting boxes. The group is trying to increase public access and enjoyment along America's wetland Birding Trail in Belle Chasse. Board member Stuart Gay, left, applies cement to hold a wood duck nesting box while volunteer Leroy Hamilton makes sure the box is straight.

